The Secretary,

London

Sir,

With reference to my Report No. 6491 on the "Standard", I beg respectfully to inform you that the fees were applied for in Nov/86, when the Owner Mr Barton requested me to supply him with the account of fees due as there was a likelihood of selling her.
I received the full amount of the fees from Mr Barton in two cheques, one of which was not negotiable viz: £6:6:11;
I was requested to retain this cheque until the survey was completed when the amount would be paid. I have since repeatedly applied to both past and present Owner but cannot get an acknowledgment from them.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
James McNeil
