18th December, 1899.

Gentlemen,

With reference to the entry contained in your return of vessels under survey, dated the 15th instant, in regard to the steamer "CAZENGO", I have to acquaint you that a report received from the Society's Surveyor at Lisbon on this vessel's Boilers has forwarded to the Liverpool Office on the 13th October last.

I have, however, telegraphed to the Surveyors at that port, requesting them to forward the document in question to you by to-night's post.

I have therefore to request that you will give the case the necessary attention, and return the Lisbon report to this Office in due course.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

The Surveyors,

Secretary.
