29th June, 1910.

Gentlemen,

I have to confirm my telegram as follows respecting the case of the steamer "ARIOSTO", and shall be glad to hear from you on this subject as soon as possible.

Telegram sent:-

"ARIOSTO understand survey and repairs completed
"if so please send report at once classification
"certificates urgently required".

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary

The Surveyors,

HULL.

P.S.

Since writing the above I am in receipt of your telegram as follows:-

"ARIOSTO survey and repairs not completed will
"report as soon as possible".

I have, however, to request that you will let me know when the survey will be completed as I gathered from Lord Nunburnholme today that he understood that the survey of this vessel and also that of the "MONTEBELLO" as regards hull and machinery were actually complete.
