REPAIRS, OR EXAMINATION AS PER RULE

The "Farnley Hall" got on Shore in the Baltic and took much damage on her Bottom, Frames and plating stove & broke, and very leaky. Got hauled into Copenhagen, put her on the patent sleep for survey. After ascertaining the damage the Captain found it in the interest of all parties, not to repair his ship in full here - and made up his mind only to patch up the Bottom sufficiently so as to be able to proceed to W. Hartlepool for further repairs. - The vessel having had such repairs, good for the run over to England, left the sleep, was tight, and proceeded for England on 28th August in Ballast for further inspection & repairs.
