

Lloyd's Proving House,

Netherton, near Dudley.

4. March 1849.

Sir

I beg respectfully to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 3rd Inst. with with enclosure, relative to the testing of a Stockless Anchor, weighing ^{Cwt. 7 1/2 lbs} 36" 3" 9. on 5th December, 1848; and to inform you that no Anchor agreeing with this weight, and description, has been tested here, neither has any Certificate been issued for an anchor, which has been tested to other than the Statutory strain, at this Establishment.

H. C. Searfau & Co.,
2 White Lion Court,
Cornhill,
London E.C.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Most Obedient Servant.
D. J. Lewis
Supt.