The Secretary

Sir In reply to your enquiry contained in letter of the 28th Inst. with reference to the case of the S.S. "Daisy" I beg respectfully to state, that it was intimated to Messrs. Lumball, Brothers, (the Representatives of the owners, residing here) - that the vessel could not be repaired for a retention of her A's character until the permanent repairs required, had been effected, when I was informed, that under no circumstances - would they consent to their being done in Cardiff - (this I believe in consequence of the somewhat excessive) - and that it was the owner's intention to do the necessary work at Whitby. My impression at first was that she would proceed thither at once, and it was not until sometime afterwards that I found she was taking in cargo -
