

184 L

Surveyor is required to state the present Condition of the General Observations and Opinion, (auth'd from the Upper upwards on March last, as required by the Instructions, Appears in a very efficient state for the safe conveyance Dry & perishable cargoes to & from all parts of the World and may continue so with the most

Character assigned

184 A

The Surveyor is required to state the present Condition of the General Observations and Opinion, General appearance very indifferent, main hatchway beam as required by the Instructions, sprung, decks very indifferent, ceiling decayed in several places, symptoms of warping at the Waterway beam & the Hd & Dst beam ends; and Tum of opinion is only fit the safe conveyance of cargoes not subject to sea damage Committee Minute 11th June 1841 & should be stated F.

Character assigned

Letter to Mary
H. H. H. H.

© 2019
Lloyd's Register
Foundation