REPAIRS, OR EXAMINATION AS PER RULE Damage
 This vessel is stated to have been damaged through colliding with the S.S. "Harraton" in the River Thames on 21st March 1887.
 Two shell plates on the starboard bow and one on the port bow have been renewed. One frame on the starboard bow has been partly renewed. Two of the main deck beams were slightly fractured and have been repaired. The stock of the starboard lower anchor was broken and has been repaired. The stock of the port lower anchor was carried away and has been renewed. Other minor fittings have been renewed, repaired and made good.
