

24th January 1872.

Sir, Regarding to your letter of the 11th instant in regard to the case of your steamer
"George Howland," I have to acquaint you that the Committee are now in receipt of a satisfactory report on the above back of this vessel from the Society's official Liverpool and that the vessel's character in the Society's Register Book will not now be disturbed.

I am to add that the statement of the Surveyor who inspected the above back in this port is fully confirmed by the Officer engaged in the survey at Liverpool.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
B. T. Weymouth
