The Secretary,
Lloyd's Register,
London.

Dear Sir,
In favour of yesterday, to hand enclosing Lloyd's Register for which we are obliged. We shall be glad if you will kindly let us have the other sheet or a copy of same.
As the Liverpool Register will require to see it with reference to docking the ship for further inspection, we do not think there will be an opportunity to do so until she returns to the Kingdom of Continent. However we will let you the earliest opportunity she can be docked.

Yours very truly,
R. Hughes-Jones
