Dear Sir:

Replying to your valued favor of the 4th Ult, we have the pleasure to hand you the Official Certificate of the Naval Authorities of the date of the survey upon the steam-tug "Narciso Deulofeu" and of examination of her machinery under steam, which you ask for in the letter above referred to. We regret that the unsettled state of everything owing to the pressure of work in the Government Offices, from the war, has delayed our obtaining the dispatch of this simple document so long. We hope however that it will prove all that is needed to enable the Committee to have the proper notations made in the Register that the vessel made preserve her class.

We remain, Dear Sir,

Your Obedt. Servts.
