Lloyds Register.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of June 1st duly received.

NARCISO DEULOFEU. I herein enclose a copy of the communication I addressed to the owners of this vessel, and the reply I received, after I had received your letter of date March 6th, 1895, since which time, no further news has been received by me. The unsettled state of the Island has, no doubt, interfered with the regular course of business, or else the owners do not care to continue the Class of said steamer.

Very respectfully yours,
