Dear Sir

In my correspondence with Lloyds Register. I have been severely reprimanded as to the course I pursued in relation to The Periodical Survey of your steam tug Narciso Denclofen as being irregular and unsatisfactory. Yet I am of the opinion if you are making the repairs &c in accordance with the rules I sent you. If the papers are sent by you direct to the home office in London. They will at least receive the careful consideration of their committee and possibly be satisfactory to them so that the cause will receive the benefit to which she will be entitled

Very Respectfully Yours
