Secty. of Lloyds Register,

Dear Sir:-

LLYD'S REGISTER
LONDON.
REC'D - 1 APR 95
AN82

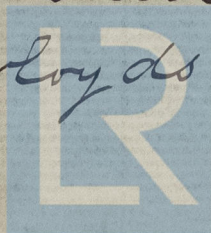

Your letter of March 6th duly received.

NARCISO DEULOFEU. I have had no further correspondence in relation to this vessel, and such a time has elapsed, that I presume the affairs of re-classing of said vessel have been abandoned. I admit that I felt that, in my correspondence to the owners, I was deviating from an extremely proper course; but, as I could not go to the ^{Port} ~~Court~~ of Havanna, I assumed the responsibility of writing as I did, to the owners. At the same time, the tone of my letter was such that it did not guarantee that my recommendations would be confirmed. Shall, at an early date, notify the owners of the irregular course I had named to them was not approved by the Society.

My fee of fifty dollars that was named was based upon the paper value of the currency of Cuba. Should the reports of the survey, if come to hand such is being made, I will forward to you for whatever disposition or action you may take.

Very respectfully yours,

*L. H. Gurley Surveyor

Referred to the Chief Surveyor.

As to being made, I will forward to you for whatever disposition of value of the currency of Cuba. Would the reports of the survey, if they were not approved by the Society, be sent to the Chief Surveyor? I had named to not mentioned that the recommendations would be confirmed. Shall, at an others. At the same time, the fact of the matter was such that it did happen. I assumed the responsibility of writing as I did, to the from an extremely poor source; but, as I could not go to the heart of that I felt that the correspondence to the owners. I was devoting attention of the management of all vessels have been abandoned. I admit from the vessel, and such a thing has happened. That I presume the MINISTRO LEONARDO. I have had no further correspondence in relation to the vessel, and such a thing has happened. That I presume the

MINISTRO LEONARDO.

MINISTRO LEONARDO.
