To save time, the Public are recommended to hand in their Telegrams at the Company's Stations, as above, where receipts are given for the amounts charged.

Telegrams for this Company's Cables handed in at Postal Telegraph Offices must be marked "Via DIRECT CABLE."
This instruction is signalled free of charge.

The Name of the Place, from which Messages originate, is transmitted Free of Charge.

For the better guarding against mistakes, every Telegram of consequence should be repeated. An additional quarter rate is charged for such repetition.

CONDITIONS.—The Company may decline to forward the Message, though it has been received for transmission; but in case of so doing shall refund to the sender the amount paid for its transmission.

In case the Message shall never reach its destination by reason of any neglect or default of the Company or its servants whilst the Message remains under the control of the Company, they will refund the amount paid by the sender of such Message.

The Company shall not be liable to make compensation beyond the amount to be refunded as above for any loss, injury, or damage arising or resulting from the non-transmission or non-delivery of the Message, or delay or error in the transmission or delivery thereof, howsoever such non-transmission, non-delivery, delay, or error shall have occurred.

The control of the Company over the Message shall be deemed to have entirely ceased for the purposes of these Conditions at any point where, in the course of the transit of the Message to its destination, it may be entrusted by the Company (and the Company shall have full power so to entrust the Message) for further transmission by or through any system, service, or line of Telegraph belonging to or worked by any administration or authority not controlled by the Company exclusively, although worked as part of or in connection with the Telegraphic system or service of the Company.
