

Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping.

Leith,

20th June, 1873.

Gentlemen,

I beg to hand you herewith on account of the fees due for the survey held on the S.S. "Satarans"; and to request that you will kindly favour me with a remittance at your earliest convenience.

Permit me to remind you that, according to the Rules of the Society, it is necessary that all fees for surveys upon the vessel be paid in order that her character in the Society's Register Book may be duly maintained.

I am,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

H. Paulsen & James H. Mancoff
