Gentlemen,

I have to send herewith, for your information and guidance, a copy of a letter which has today been addressed to the Society's principal Surveyor at Glasgow respecting the wood sailing ship "ELEGANCE", which vessel is now at your port.

The circumstances of the case are fully set forth in the enclosed copy of letter, and I have to request that you will be so good as to render Mr. Dodd or Mr. Sinnette any information or assistance that may be in your power.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,
