3rd September, 1917.

Dear Sirs,

E. I have to acquaint you that an Electric Lighting Installation is reported by the Society's Surveyor at Nantes to have been partly fitted on board the steamer "CORNEILLE" at St. Nazaire.

The Surveyor states that the dynamo and engine will probably be shipped at a Bristol Channel port, and if this should be done at your port, I have to request that you will give the matter attention.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

CARDIFF, NEWPORT,

SWANSEA, BRISTOL, BARRY.
