

Reference

M.

REC'D

ANS'D

3 JUL 1901

3, St. Nicholas Buildings, Newcastle on Tyne.

1 Enclosure (not with letter) 2nd July 1901.

The Secretary
London.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 24th ult. re. the S.S. "Eider" I beg to state that the weight of the kedge anchor at present on board is $3\frac{1}{4}$ Cwt ex. stock & weight of stock 19 lbs. (weight required by Rules $\frac{3}{4}$ Cwt.)

The Certificate for the steel stream wire has not yet been received from the owners but particulars will be forwarded at an early date.

In accordance with your request (in view of the difference in the

Referred to the Chief Ship Surgeon.

[Handwritten text, likely a medical report or list, written in cursive script. The text is dense and covers most of the left page. A large, stylized initial 'S' is visible near the top center.]

[Handwritten text, likely a signature or note, written in cursive script. It is located on the right side of the page.]

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

woulded depth now reported)
I enclose a new Trawlboard Report on this vessel.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant
A. R. Suddon.

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

NWC875-00892/2