14th October, 1908.

Gentlemen,

With reference to the steamer "URMSTON GRANGE", at present under your survey, I have to acquaint you that the Owners of this vessel are anxious to obtain at your earliest convenience the special damage reports in this case, and I have to request that you will give the matter the necessary attention with a view to complying with the Owners' request.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary

The Surveyors,
NEWCASTLE.
