July 4 say the surgeons that had the operations been given in the first instance, in the first instance it might have been much lessened and a delay would have been avoided, & although they have not such cases with sudden cases, still they deserve it may be understood by William that it is his duty & upon the facts to me & to suggest that the surgeons of the district who attend a ship may be removed, may be insisted to see that the surgeons attention is paid to the lives - & the survivors neither the men or women killed in the spiritance of the ship The Mrs. Jane has been eloped
