and Foreign Shipping,
56, John Street, Sunderland.

23rd July 1890

The Secretary
London,

Sir,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of yesterdays date having reference to the S.S. "Cloncurry", and in reply have to state that this vessel has been examined in dry dock but has been floated again and now lies in the South Dock at this Port.

So far as is known at present the owners have not yet decided into whose hands they will place the vessel for the necessary repairs.

I am,
Sir,

Your obedient servant
George Harrison.
