16th March 1906.

Gentlemen,

M.

With reference to your telegram and letter of the 9th instant regarding the plans of the steamer "WARRIGAL", which were forwarded to you in July last, I have to inform you that although very careful search has been made in this office no trace whatever can be found of these plans having been returned .

I shall therefore be glad if you will be so good as to furnish me with a copy of your letter advising the return of the plans in question.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

SUNDERLAND.
