

HULL

THE DAILY MAIL, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1948

AGROUND.—The s.t. Brock aground at the mouth of the Old Harbour. The trawler was on her way to Victoria Dock from Middlesbrough, to have her engines removed prior to being broken up, when she went aground. There was a danger of her turning over, but she was refloated this morning.

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W1009-0004

W1009-0006

Special Damage or Repair Fee (if any) £ : :
(per Sec. 29)

Travelling Expenses (if chargeable) £ : :

Received by me,

Handwritten signature