12th June, 1919.

Dear Mr. Beveridge,

With regard to your letter of the 7th instant referring to the fitting of portable plates in the 'tween deck bulkheads of Messrs. Workman Clark & Co's No. 442, I would be obliged, before we deal with the case, if you would inform me who the Owners are and also the names of the vessels in which you state the bolted plates have been fitted, as we do not appear to have this information.

You might also let me know if the fitting of these bolted plates has been carried out with the cognizance of the Society and to the approval of the Surveyors.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,

C.T.

R.J. Beveridge, Esq.,

BELFAST.
