FREEBOARD REPORT on the

Aarla

It is submitted the Glasgow office be informed that a fee of six guineas should be charged for each day upon which the Swaggas attended Court under subpoena. No charge should be made in respect of attendances in Court with a view to watching the Society's interests, and no fee should be charged in connection with Mr. Aitken's visits to the lawyers.

The fees collected are to be credited to the Society, who will pay the Swaggas' expenses.
