29th September, 1903.

Sir,

With reference to Glasgow report No. 21109 on the yacht "HECATE", it is observed that the amount of the fee charged for the survey of the hull of the yacht is £22-0-0, whereas the fee according to the scale for yachts should have been £29-11-0, and I shall feel obliged if you will kindly let me know why the former fee was charged. I may add that the Yacht Measurement tonnage in this case is 471 tons.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary.

T. J. Dodd, Esq.,

GLASGOW.
