

W1015-0160

PHONE: 3687 (2 LINES).

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

Ocean Chambers, Lowgate,

Hull, 26th November, 1948.

Enclosure

Dear Walter,

The enclosed cutting from our local Paper may interest you and add to the information you will already have gleaned from the Shipping Paper, concerning the "Colwith Force". All the Wiseacres here say that it will be impossible to salvage the vessel.

W. Reed, Esq.,
London.

Kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,
[Signature]

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

to heel over and in with water and the crew rushed on deck. As she continued to overturn, we kicked off our boots in case we had to swim for it and

At high water today, only the bows of the Colwith Force were visible. The steamers Alt and Yorkbrook, also outward bound last night, had to put back to port and sailed