

COPY.

Lloyd's Register of Shipping.

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C. 3.

ENCLOSURE.

20th September, 1922.

Dear Sir,
I wrote you some time ago respecting the

Dear Jack,

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date and regret to hear that you have had to undergo an operation to your throat, but I am pleased to know that you are on the straight road to recovery, and trust you will soon be your own self again.

I replied to your letter regarding Messrs. Hawthorn, Leslie's Nos. 529 and 530 on the 12th instant, but as this letter has evidently miscarried, I enclose a copy of same herewith.

With kind regards,

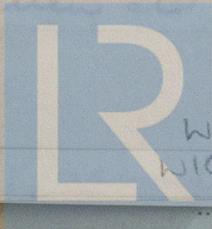

Yours faithfully,

J. Macdonald, Esq.,

NEWCASTLE-on-TYNE.

*White Bay
London*

P.S. Write to E. H. ...

© 2020

Lloyd's Register Foundation

Access of that rule, do not come up to Lloyd's requirements for strength. In excess of that rule, do not come up to Lloyd's requirements for which will vary with their strength.