6th September, 1912.

Sir,

I have to inform you that a telegram has been received from Messrs. J. Priestman & Co. requesting that a special survey may be held on the bottom of the Steamer "TIME", now under the survey of the Society's Surveyors at West Hartlepool.

In the circumstances I am directed to request that you will arrange to proceed to that port tomorrow morning and join Mr. McAuslan in holding a special survey upon the vessel.

I have therefore wired you at your private address as follows:-

"Please arrange proceed West Hartlepool tomorrow
"morning join McAuslan holding special survey
"Steamer TIME writing tonight".

I am to add that no written statement regarding this case should be issued by you and Mr. McAuslan until it has been submitted to this Office.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

W. L. Gilmour, Esq.,

MIDDLESBROUGH.
