Dear Sirs,

With reference to Cardiff report No. 41734 on the steamer "UALAN", and to Mr. Buchanan's letter of the 18th ultimo I have to enquire whether this vessel has yet returned to your port and, if so, whether it has been ascertained whether the sheerstrake is doubled in way of the poop front.

If not, I have to request that you will make enquiries of the Owners where the vessel can be seen so that this point may be cleared up.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,
CARDIFF.
