11th April, 1935.

Dear Mr. Ormiston,

As Mr. Scott is still away I take the opportunity of acknowledging your letter of the 9th instant addressed to him in regard to the case of the steamer "BONZO".

This letter of course crossed our official reply of the 10th instant, which I think answers all your enquiries.

You will doubtless arrange for the Naples Surveyor to be given the requisite instructions in the matter as soon as any decision is arrived at.

Yours faithfully,

J.S.Ormiston, Esq.,

GENOA.
