Dear Sir,

M.S. "CORTELLAZZO",
Cantieri Riuniti dell'Adriatico No.223.

We beg to acknowledge the receipt of your classing letter of the 31st ultimo regarding Trieste first entry report N°9129 on the above vessel, together with the certificates of classification.

With regard to the fees charged in this case we are advised today by the Registro Italiano that they have received payment of the respective account and that the amount in question will be included in the next monthly settlement.

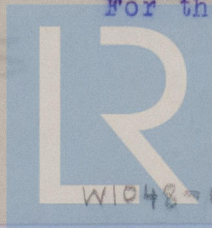

As it is considered that no practical purpose could be served by cabling you to this effect, the London office being closed until the morning of Tuesday, 7th instant, no telegram is being despatched.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

F. Shipman
For the Surveyors.

The Secretary,

This image shows a page from a manuscript, likely a liturgical book or a collection of hymns. The page features several staves of musical notation. The notation is square neumes written on four-line red staves. The text is written in a Gothic script. There are several staves of music, with some staves containing a large, ornate initial 'M' in blue ink. The manuscript is written on parchment or vellum, and the ink is dark brown or black. The overall appearance is that of a historical musical score or hymn book.
