Glasgow, C.2. 4th September, 1940.

Dear Sir,

With reference your letter of the 31st May last respecting the Steamer "MICHAEL JEBSEN", I beg to acquaint you that I have received a visit from the Superintendent of Messrs. David Alexander & Sons, the Managing Agents, who states that the vessel left Hong Kong on the 17th June last and that he desires to be furnished with details of the survey work carried out at that port.

I shall be glad, therefore, if you will be so good as to let me know what was done at Hong Kong, at the same time observing that the Ministry of Shipping have instructed the Managing Agents to have the vessel classed with this Society.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

A. Phillips
Secretary to the Glasgow Committee.

The Secretary,
WOKINGHAM.
