20th August, 1941.

Dear Sirs,

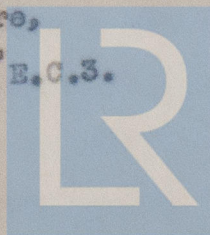

With reference to the case of the steamer "TOENDJOEK" ex "RENDSEBURG", I have to acquaint you that a report has been received from the Society's Surveyor at Batavia from which it appears that some cracked cylinder covers and the forward starboard donkey boiler have been repaired, some bearings remetalled and minor machinery repairs effected. No alteration is being made to the memorandum in this office regarding the case.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.
