Hamburg, 18th April, 1929.

Dear Sir,

I have to confirm cablegrams exchanged between us respecting the s.s. "STANAPALT" reading as follows:-

Sent : "OWNERS UNABLE TO USE VESSEL FOR CARRIAGE OF
"LIQUID ASPHALT CARGO AT THE PRESENT TIME WHILE
"LAND INSTALLATION NOT COMPLETED OWNERS PROPOSE
"LOAD PETROLEUM LONDON KÖNIGSBERG ONE OR TWO
"VOYAGES CABLE THIS OFFICE WHETHER THIS WOULD BE
"PERMITTED WITH CLASSIFICATION ASSIGNED"

Received: "IN VIEW OF RIVETING SEAMS AT SIDE OF TANKS AND
"RIVETING TOP OF TANKS BEING SINGLE INSTEAD OF
"DOUBLE AS REQUIRED BY THE RULES FOR THE CARRIAGE
"OF PETROLEUM REGRET SOCIETY UNABLE TO ACCEDE
"OWNERS REQUEST".

Dr. Regenbogen of the Deutsch-Amerikanische
Petroleum Gesellschaft, Hamburg, representing the Owners, has been advised accordingly.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

A. Christen

1. The first of these is the fact that the "JANUARY" is not only a very old and well-known name, but it is also a very common one, and is used by many other persons and firms.

This image shows a vertical strip of a manuscript page, likely from a medieval or early modern music book. It features several staves of musical notation, with notes written in a historical script. There are also large, ornate initials, possibly in red ink, which are decorated with intricate patterns and flourishes. The paper appears aged and slightly discolored.
