S.S. "STANSAPALT", Messrs. Palmers S.B. & I.Co's No. 989.

Mr. William Isherwood, of the Designers' Firm, rang up this Office at 5.0 p.m. and stated that Mr. A. Maclean, of the Anglo-American Oil Co.Ltd., had informed him that the vessel had arrived at Thameshaven with a view to loading a cargo of lamp oil, and a decision on this matter was urgently required.

Mr. William Isherwood stated that he saw no objection to the proposal, and understood that the pumping arrangements were suitable for the carriage of petroleum.
