

This trawler was sunk by collision with the rest of particulars of casualty their sinking ship. Tugs proceeded to the aid of the two vessels, which were in collision opposite St. Andrew's Dock.

The St. Leander was holed amidships, racked bows,
le. It was Leander had h Company.
9.--Trawler
on approxi-
End River
8. Trawler
brew's Dock

LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING

UNIONED WITH THE BRITISH CORPORATION REGISTER

15 MAR 1951 Ocean Chambers, Lowgate, Hull

Telephone: 36872 (2 Lines)

Ansd. Ack. 16/3 14th March, 1951.

Reference
Classn. & Publins.

Steam Trawler "ST. LEANDER"

Dear Sir,

We beg to inform you that it is understood work on the attempted salvage of the above trawler, which it will be recollected was sunk in the Humber in recent months, is to be commenced about the end of the present month. We will advise you in due course as to the success or otherwise of the operation.

Yours faithfully,
The Surveyors,

Per:-

Rowden

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

The Secretary,
LONDON.

W1069-0158

acquaint you that in the circumstances operation for a short time, pending

PUBLICATIONS

John Reed WRP
JRB

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

Public

éois