

"VALENA"

It is submitted Messrs. McNabb, Rougier & Co. be informed it is regretted that no information other than that appearing in the Society's Register Book can be furnished regarding this vessel, without the written consent of the Owners. They will observe from the Register Book that a freeboard has not been assigned to this vessel by the Society.

It is further submitted that, in the meantime, a copy of the attached letter be forwarded to the Marseilles Surveyor, and he be requested to furnish his remarks thereon, especially as regards Paragraph 5, for the confidential information of the Committee.
