20th August, 1931.

Dear Cassidy,

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday respecting the fee entered on Grimsby forging report No. F. 3085. As it is obvious that no fee is chargeable for this work, I do not think there is any objection to the desired alteration being made at this end, and I have accordingly deleted the entry of £1:1:0 from the report.

With kindest regards,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

G.M. Cassidy, Esq.,

GRIMSBY.
