Dear Sir,

Hull, 7th July, 1947.

Cochrane & Sons Yard No.1319.

Ruston & Hornsby Engine No.24110.

With reference to your letter dated 20th February last, addressed to the Society's Surveyors at Nottingham, we beg to inform you it is concluded torsigraph readings will not require to be taken at the vessel's trials which will shortly be carried out, but we shall be glad if you will be good enough to confirm this.

Yours faithfully,
The Surveyors,

Per:-

The Secretary, LONDON.

It is submitted the Hull Surveyors be informed that having regard to the satisfactory results of the shop tests on the engine-gearbox system, Kevsigraph records will not now be required on the sea trials of this vessel.
