9th November, 1951.

Dear Sir,

A/Cs

Your return of outstanding accounts as at 30th September 1951 has now been received in this office but no report regarding fees which have been outstanding for three months or more appears to have been received. I shall be glad therefore if you will kindly forward such a report as soon as possible. With regard to the case of the "NORTH VOYAGEUR", will you please let me know the address to which the account was sent.

Yours faithfully,

J.W.
pro Secretary.
