Many thanks for your letter of December 10th, and I very much regret to note that you appear to have had no answer to your previous letters, but these have not been sent to me for attention, and I fail to understand what could have become of them.

I resigned the Secretaryship of the Greenwood Shipping Co. Ltd. last June, since when the ships have been in the hands of Messrs. H.S. Cordran, 4, Lloyd's Avenue, E.C. 3, and if you communicate with them they will be able to give you all the information that you require.
