Amst. 31.
LONDON

Dear Sir,

Reverting to your letters of the 1st and 22nd instant respecting the case of the s.s. "MAMARI" I have to advise you that this vessel is presently lying at Messrs. Deutsche Werke, Kiel, and the refrigerating machinery and appliances are now being removed from the vessel.

It is stated that the vessel is to be converted to carry motor cars from America to the Continent and is to have B.C. classification on completion of the alterations, but no definite information is yet available from the Owners regarding the matter.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

A. Christmann

The Secretary,
