3rd August 1927,

The Secretary,
London.

Sir,

The Society's Surveyors at Marseilles have acquainted me that the Owners of the S/S. "MADO" have decided not to have any ~~longer~~ this vessel classed with us.

In view of the reasons given by the Sté Maritime Nationale, presented in a systematic way, it appears that it is not probable that we <sup>could</sup> ~~may~~ persuade them to have their decision reconsidered in a favourable way.

As all the other vessels of their fleet are classed with the Bureau Veritas, their Head Office in Paris has concluded that the S/S. "MADO" will now be also classed with the B.V.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,
