Dear Mr Scott,

In consequence of Mr Lawrence's absence from the office owing to illness, he has asked me to acknowledge receipt of your official letter Ref. "D" of the 25th ult., also your private letter to him regarding the fees to be charged on the above vessel.

With regard to same, I wish to ask, in order that any confusion may be saved, and before informing Messrs Orlando of the contents of your letter, whether I am correct in stating that the fees will be sub-divided in three classes as follows:-

- a) Survey fees & all expenses in connection with the hull (£450.)
- b) Survey of the installation of the machinery during fitting out on board plus travelling expenses.
- c) Steel testing fees plus travelling expenses

The latter as you state being charged in the customary manner to the steel manufactures.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

A. Scott Esq.,
London.

For our magazine to note

The item of £450 is as will be seen in the letter to Mr Lawrence approximate & will vary in according to the actual travelling expenses incurred &
The figures given by Mr Stewart are in order subject to the above
