11th September, 1924.

Dear Sirs,

With reference to the survey held by this Society's Surveyors at Aberdeen on the Electrical Installation for your tug "CULEX", I have the pleasure to acquaint you that the Committee, who have had the question of the charge prescribed by the Rules for this inspection under their consideration, have decided, in the circumstances, to waive the fee in question in this instance.

I may add that I am informing the Society's Surveyors at Aberdeen accordingly.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
