THE SURVEYORS.

The Secretary.

London.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 17th instant respecting our first entry report No. 11274 on the S.S. "MERAK", I beg to inform you that the sizes given for upper deck beams in way of Bridge, Bridge beams and forecastle beams have been approved on the outline Midship Section in connection with the increased tumble home given to the vessel. This plan has been approved per your letter of the 27th of October 1917.

With reference to the Manufacturer of the Sternframe and rudder castings named in my report I have to state that this firm has been approved in this particular instance on the special request of the Builders per your letter of the 9th of August 1917. The castings have been made and tested under the supervision of the Amsterdam Surveyors and certificates have been issued by them in due course.

I am, dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

L. M. W.
