CARDIFF, 22nd June, 1933.

Dear Sir,

We transmit herewith a letter addressed from the Wales Steamship Co., Ltd and handed to us today by Mr. George Bethel, Superintendent for the Laverton Shipping Co., Ltd., Cardiff. Mr. Bethel explains that negotiations for the purchase of the steamers referred to viz:- "ACTON MANOR", "CHISWICK MANOR", "ROMPTON MANOR", and "EMSWORTH MANOR", by the Laverton Steamship Co., are almost complete and he desires to obtain particulars of work done in connection with all outstanding surveys and of requirements remaining to be complied with to complete these inspections. In view of the fact that the vessels have been taken over by the National Provincial Bank as Mortgagees, Mr. Bethel obtained an endorsement on the letter of the concurrence of Mr. W.A.Green who was appointed by the Bank to manage the steamers.

We shall be obliged if you will kindly furnish us with your instructions in view of Mr. Bethel's request.

We are, Dear Sir,

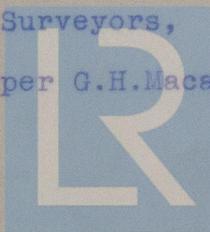

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,

per G.H.Macadam.

Secretary,

LONDON.
