1st April, 1925.

Dear Sir,

Reverting to my letter of the 30th ultimo respecting the liquidation of Messrs. I. J. Abdela & Mitchell, Ltd, I beg to acquaint you that I have been in communication with the Owners of the Steamer "CORNISH MERCHANT", and that they repudiate payment of the Society's fees for the survey of the vessel for classification, and in the circumstances I shall be much obliged if you can see your way to favour me for inspection with the contract for building this vessel and the account shewing the payments made under this contract.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Joseph W. Shepherd, Esq.,
Incorporated Accountant,
